

The Oklahoma Vein & Endovascular Center

Oklahoma City Varicose Veins Treatment

Welcome to the Oklahoma Vein & Endovascular Center ^[1], where we take a scientifically-proven approach to varicose veins that yields guaranteed results. Not only will you receive complete removal of your varicose veins ^[2], but you will have the most pleasant experience possible.

At the Oklahoma Vein & Endovascular Center, varicose vein doctor, Dr. Dominic Pedulla ^[3]--a triple board-certified doctor (cardiology, vein diseases, vascular medicine) with over 20 years' experience treating blood vessels--practices his exclusive "Pedulla approach" to varicose vein treatment. Dr. Pedulla focuses his practice on varicose vein treatment and treats more varicose vein patients than any other doctor in Oklahoma City or Tulsa, Oklahoma.

A Patient-Designed Experience for You

From the moment your first phone call is answered until the time you are fully satisfied with your vein care, our Oklahoma varicose vein care team has been specifically chosen and trained to consistently offer the ?Ritz Carlton? level of vein care service. We pledge to go the extra mile to make your procedure pleasant and affordable. We are happy to file your insurance paperwork and offer several financing options ^[4] for those interested in payment plans.

The Pedulla Approach

Dr. Pedulla is the only varicose vein treatment doctor in Oklahoma City who is triple board-certified (cardiology, vascular medicine, vein diseases), and he has drawn on his knowledge and experience to design a unique approach to varicose vein treatment. The exclusive Pedulla Approach is designed to give you the best possible results while ensuring your treatment is as gentle and painless as possible.
